

Treachery & not my King Charles III not after the first

King Charles III (left), a Raven waiting to feast of the executed (back in the day) and right, adjudged traitor and enemy of the peoples of England & Wales, Charles I

Table of Contents

1. Not my King and not my Queen!
2. The Coronation Oath and what it's designed to do
3. Section 3 of the Constitutional Reform Act 2005
4. The meaning of "governing justly"
5. The meaning of a traitor

1. Not my King & not my Queen!

Charles I, on the right, (19 November 1600 – 30 January 1649) was King of England, Scotland, and Ireland from 27 March 1625 until his execution in 1649. Accused of treason against England by using his power to pursue his personal interest rather than the good of England. We see direct synergies with his modern-day counterpart, is he following in the footsteps?

Charles 1st squabbled with English Parliament, who sought to curtail his royal prerogative. Charles 1st, found to be a traitor, believed in the divine right of kings, and was determined to govern according to his own conscience rather than of the laws of the land, which he considered himself above. Many of his subjects opposed his policies, in particular the levying of taxes without parliamentary consent, and perceived his actions as those of a tyrannical absolute monarch.

After his defeat by Parliament in the Civil Wars, Charles I was imprisoned. On 20 January 1649 the High Court of Justice at Westminster Hall put him on trial for treason. Those who were against the King's trial were turned away or arrested. The King refused to cooperate, failing to enter a plea, nor recognising the legitimacy of the court.

7-days later, the Court returned a guilty verdict and passed the sentence of execution:

'This Court doth adjudge that he the said Charles Stuart, as a Tyrant, Traitor, Murderer and Public Enemy to the good people of this Nation, [and] shall be put to death, by the severing of his head from his body'

2. The coronation oath and what its designed to do

The Coronation Oath Act 1688 is part of the English written constitution. The oath is taken as a solemn promise by the Crown to Sovereign, the people of the Kingdom of England that Parliament and the Crown will govern justly according to the statutes agreed in Parliament and the laws of the land.

We, the people of England and Wales have the inalienable right to be governed justly, according to the laws of the land. The Coronation Oath is statutory constitutional law designed to protect that right.

"By the Law and Ancient Usage of this Realm" the monarchs of England had taken a solemn oath at their coronation to maintain the statute laws and customs of the land and its people., "Framed in doubtful Words and Expressions with relation to ancient Laws and Constitutions at this time unknown", evolution of law established a single uniform oath to be taken by future monarchs at their coronation. That oath was taken by William III and Mary II during their coronation.

It is our finding and belief that in truth and reality, Charles III has vitiated it, and that neither he, nor Queen Consort can take it. Government, Ministers under the Crown and its judges are proven to be lawless and there is no judicial independence.

London: September 09 2022 King Charles III and Queen Consort Camilla are seen outside Buckingham Palace

3. Section 3 of the Constitutional Reform Act 2005

All those with public and judicial office responsibility for the justice system, including the Prime Minister of the United Kingdom, have broken the law and have vitiated their oaths of office.

3 Guarantee of continued judicial independence

(1) The Lord Chancellor, other Ministers of the Crown and all with responsibility for matters relating to the judiciary or otherwise to the administration of justice must uphold the continued independence of the judiciary.

A constitutional dire emergency that King Charles III appears only too keen to conceal. Acting contrary to the interests of the people, the Crown and government act to terrorise our people in the name of “law and “justice” while depriving their victims of both

It is our finding that the current government under the Crown is a tyranny. Those responsible are traitors who have violated the trust placed in them as public officials in positions of power.

All are empowered by statutory constitutional law designed to protect the public from abuse of power, and have the right to occupy office only whilst on good behaviour. It is proven that the current Government is criminally malfeasant.

Nobody can rely on the courts, the government nor the regulatory or law enforcement agencies to uphold the law and to protect the people’s rights, preventing tyranny. Nobody can rely on the police to prevent and detect crime.

III. Form of Oath and Administration thereof:

The Arch-Bishop or Bishop shall say; Will You solemnly Promise and Swear to Govern the People of this Kingdome of England and the Dominions thereto belonging according to the Statutes in Parlyament Agreed on and the Laws and Customs of the same?

The King and Queene shall say; I solemnly Promise soe to doe.

Arch Bishop or Bishop; Will You to Your power cause Law and Justice in Mercy to be Executed in all Your Judgements.

King and Queene; I will.

Arch Bishop or Bishop; Will You to the utmost of Your power Maintaine the Laws of God the true Profession of the Gospell and the Protestant Reformed Religion Established by Law? And will You Preserve unto the Bishops and Clergy of this Realme and to the Churches committed to their Charge all such Rights and Priviledges as by Law doe or shall appertaine unto them or any of them.

King and Queene; All this I Promise to doe.

After this the King and Queene laying His and Her Hand upon the Holy Gospells, shall say;

King and Queene; The things which I have here before promised I will performe and Keepe Soe help me God.

Then the King and Queene shall kisse the Booke.

4. The meaning of governing justly

It means just that, to rule and govern Parliament and all officers under the Crown to ensure that government behaves according to laws of the land and according to what is morally right and fair under those laws.

In this firm's wide experience, having dealt with hundreds of victims of the politically controlled corrupted justice system, we can safely say, there is no just governance.

Justice, law and mercy has been executed, but the traitors responsible for it remain at large.

The rule of law is besmirched, and non-existent under the English kleptocracy. Capitalism and greed, combined with absolute abuse of power, prevails.

Sunak, the current Prime Minister pledged "accountability at every level of government" knowing that his corrupt government is enshrined in systemic corruption, fraud and dishonest concealment.

A lie to the people of our land? It can be nothing else but an act of treachery.

Back in the day traitors would pass through Traitor's Gate at the Tower of London before being executed often by beheading and impaling as a warning to others

5. The meaning of a traitor

Is a person, or people who betrays another's trust or is false to an obligation or duty. With that in mind, do you consider it fair in law to determine that King Charles III and his government are traitors?

The right to self-determination under the rule of law is the very fabric of any democratic society. It is we the people who are sovereign, not the Crown and officers under it.

Abolish the monarchy, they are proven to act against the will of, and are enemies of, we the people. They are, in our learned opinion, traitors, and so are most of the Crown's judges, sworn into office to administer the law fairly and impartially, whilst depriving their victims of it.

The fraud against the people is all going on right under the Crown's brand, and despite being served our formal petition to deal with it, Charles III concealed like his corrupt government did. Is this your King? Is this your Queen?

Help us to help you, like, comment and share this article far and wide.

#NotMyKing #NotMyQueen

---

“There is no greater tyranny than that which is perpetrated under the shield of the law and in the name of justice”

Montesquieu

Restoring the rule of law & holding the unaccountable to account

Questions about this article?

Go to our website and complete our easy to use contact us form where you can upload any attachments you may want us to consider.